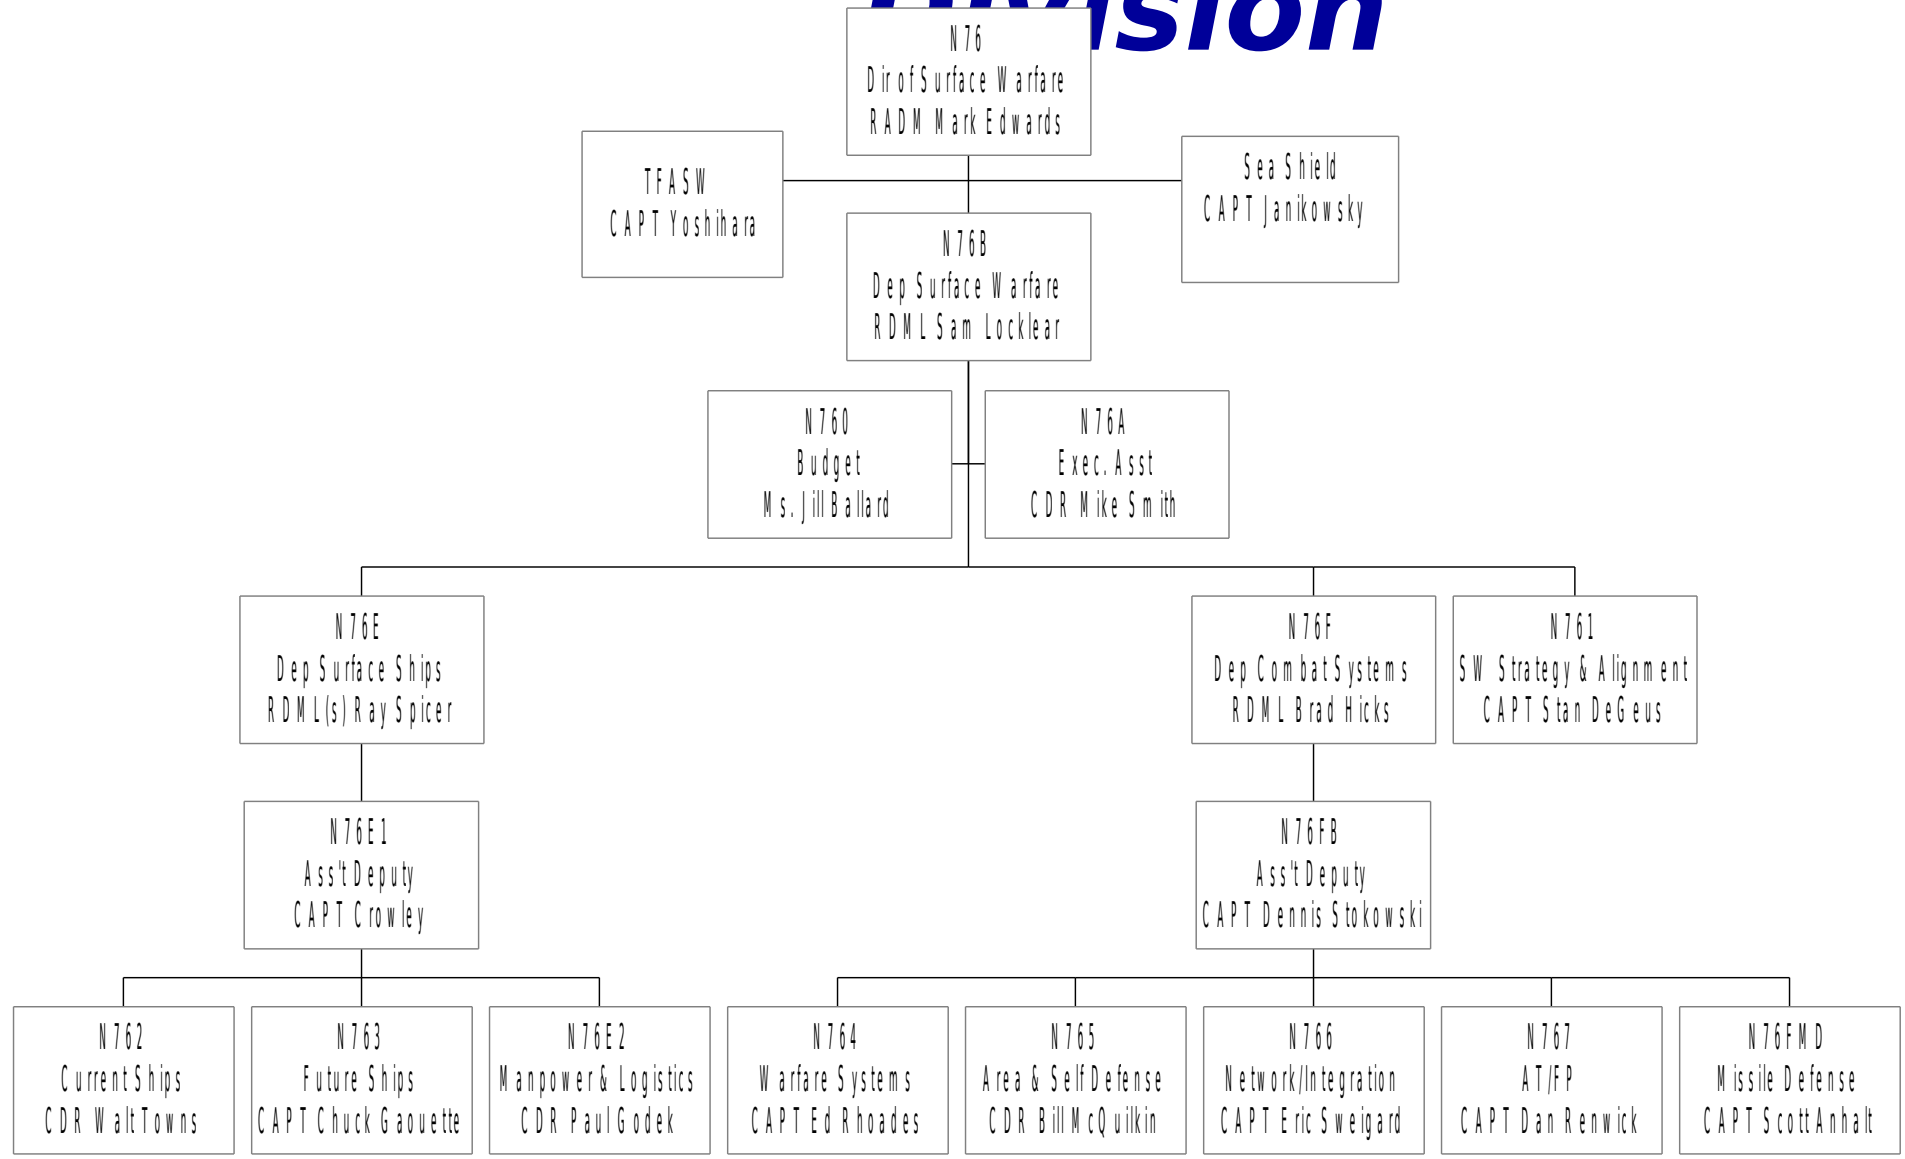
Surface Warfare Division



Rear Admiral Mark J. Edwards
United States Navy
Director, Surface Warfare Division
(OPNAV N76)

Rear Admiral Mark J. Edwards was raised in Charlotte, N.C. He attended the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History and was commissioned an ensign in the United States Navy through the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps in 1972.

His first assignment was as the Combat Information Center Officer aboard USS Damato (DD 871), homeported in Newport, R.I. Subsequent sea tours were in San Diego, Calif., and include Engineer Officer aboard USS Elliot (DD 967), Executive Officer in USS Fletcher (DD 992), and Chief Staff Officer with Destroyer Squadron Seventeen.

Rear Adm. Edwards' command tours include Fletcher and USS Chosin (CG 65), both homeported in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. He has deployed to the western Pacific, Indian Ocean and Arabian Gulf as well as participating in the 50th Anniversary of the Battle of Coral Sea in the South Pacific while in command of Fletcher.

Significant shore duty includes instructor tours in Newport, R.I., at the Senior Officer Ship Material Readiness Course and the Surface Warfare Officer School Command as the director of the command department. He served in Washington, D.C., on the staff of the Chief of Naval Operations as the branch head for surface warfare requirements and future plans and as the Navy analyst in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Strategy and Threat Reduction. He later served as the Commander, Logistics Group, Western Pacific Singapore/Task Force 73/Task Force 712. Before joining the OPNAV staff in November 2002 he served as Commander, Cruiser-Destroyer Group Five/Nimitz Battlegroup.

Rear Adm. Edwards' awards include the Defense Superior Service

Places to Eat

- Where to eat:
  - In the Pentagon Near the Concourse on the 2nd Floor there are two newly renovated cafeterias (on Corridors 1 and 10). In the newly renovated Wedge 1 on the 2nd floor 3rd corridor is a new eatery. On the third floor in Corridor 10, B ring, there is the Pentagon Dining Room. Recently renovated, it has very nice decor and seating, and a baby grand player piano playing in the foyer.

  - Outside the Pentagon The Crystal City Underground is a series of mostly underground corridors and shops connecting all the major buildings in Crystal City. The Underground contains a series of restaurants, cafes, bakeries, a fast food court and other shops. The Underground parallels Highway 1 to the east. It is a 15 minute walk southeast from the Pentagon. It is also two stops to the south of the Pentagon Metro station on the Yellow and Blue Metro lines. There are also a number of restaurants due west of Crystal City on 23rd Street. These start about 150 yards west of Highway 1 and include a fancy Italian restaurant and several with outdoor café style seating. Pentagon City is a large multistory shopping mall located an eight minute walk due south of the Pentagon. It has a large food court and two or three larger restaurants. Three restaurants and a coffee bar are located in a smaller single story shopping mall directly across Hayes Street from the Pentagon City Mall. The Pentagon City Metro stop is located beneath Hayes Street. The new Pentagon Row Mall (adjacent to Pentagon City) features several sit down restaurants
